Property Description

Currently under construction, this home showcases clean architectural lines seamlessly combined with meticulous attention to detail. Every element of this villa has been designed to astonish and amaze. And the view? A vibrant tableau where the deep blue of the Mediterranean merges with the picturesque island of Portichol.

Spanning a plot of 1,605 sm, this property unfolds across 420 sqm, with 4 bedrooms, 5 bathrooms, and a glistening 50 sqm pool. The two floors and the basement are elegantly connected by an elevator and a magnificent internal staircase.

Inside, luxury emanates: modern finishes, a high-end kitchen, exceptional bathrooms, a spa area for unforgettable relaxation moments, all crowned by a design and architectural masterpiece.

Outside, nature beckons at every turn. Spacious terraces invite relaxation, the ideally placed pool offers panoramic views of the sea and the valley. Rounding off this setting, a chill-out area, a barbecue spot, and a Mediterranean garden sprinkled with palm trees and fruit-bearing plants. The property also boasts a private two-car garage.

In terms of technology, this villa doesn't fall short. Underfloor heating, individual air conditioning in each room, state-of-the-art alarm system, and a cutting-edge home automation system ensure comfort and security.

The location; Nestled in the heart of the Mar Azul residential area in Javea, this splendid villa perfectly embodies the harmony between nature and modern luxury. Just a few steps from the captivating bay of Port...
